

United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) FY 2014 Service Contract Inventory Planned Analysis

USDA will evaluate the 18 Product Service Codes list in the chart below for the FY 2014 Inventory Analysis.

The analysis will place priority emphasis on the following PSCs: B505 Cost Benefit Analysis, R406 Policy Review/Development, R409 Program Review/Development Services, R413 Specifications Development Services, R425 Engineering Technical Services, R497 Personal Services Contracts, D314 ADP System Acquisition Support Services and D314 ADP System Acquisition Support Services.

These functions are identified by OMB for heightened management consideration, based on concerns of increased risk of losing control of mission and operations as identified through a review of reports issued in recent years. Reports such as the Government Accountability Office, the Commission on Wartime Contracting, agency Inspector General, Congressional Committees, and the Acquisition Law Advisory Panel (also referred as the “SARA Panel”) and OMB’s analysis.

USDA will evaluate these PSC to determine whether the agency should consider an increased risk of losing control of mission and operations as identified through a review of reports issued in recent years.
